

United States Army
University of Minnesota - Army ROTC →

SSG Thomas Lindemoen
Military Science Instructor
tlindemo@umn.edu

SSG Thomas Lindemoen enlisted into the military in January 2008 he is a 31B Military Police. He started his career as a Military Police in Schweinfurt, Germany. He has since served as a Traffic Management Collision Investigator at Fort Bliss, Texas; as a Team Leader, Information Management Officer, Traffic Management Collision Investigator, Squad Leader and Traffic Management Collision Investigator NCOIC at Fort Carson, Colorado; and as a Detailed Recruiter, Deputy Station Commander and Station Commander in Woodbury Army Recruiting Center, Minnesota.

SSG Lindemoen was deployed twice to Afghanistan (Fob Connolly, and Kandahar Airfield) for Operation Enduring Freedom.

SSG Lindemoen is originally from Minnesota and resides in Oakdale, Minnesota